PREVENTION IN ACTION!

ARTISTS IN ACTION

Prevention members got in touch with their inner artist at the Picnic In The Park event and handed out pens, pencils, and erasers to students of all ages and sizes. Along with other organizations, team members encouraged students to sketch out their future!

JORGE: I THINK THERE IS PAINT ON THE LENS...

LEE: HUH? SORRY, I CAN'T HEAR YOU!

JENNIFER: SAY "KAHLO!" TO THE CAMERA!

TEXAS-SIZED FUN!

There was Texas-sized fun down at the West Texas Boys Ranch Field Day! With school about to start up again, the Preveners assembled to give the boys a fun-packed field day to close out the summer. They played games, laughed, and even made their very own galaxies in a jar!

TIME FOR A GLOW-UP!

The Preveners joined the San Angelo Family Shelter for their Glow-Up Teen Summit! This three day event focused on how to recognize and navigate a healthy relationship. The Preveners also educated them how vaping, drugs, and alcohol can affect their bodies and a relationship.

40 DEVELOPMENTAL ASSESTS

#33 INTERPERSONAL COMPETENCE

Young people who have empathy, sensitivity, and friendship skills are more likely to grow up healthy and avoid risky behaviors.

- Help young people learn how to monitor their own expressions of feelings, read other people's reactions and feelings
- Every relationship in a young person's life is a chance to grow and learn.
- Building interpersonal competence is a lifelong process, so be patient.

Life is like riding a bicycle. To keep your balance, you must keep moving
